AURA READING RESEARCH

When information is what you crave, choose a session of Aura Research and make a list of your questions. We'll get to as many as we can.

Rose can read any chakra databank in your aura at any time in your life so far. That includes learning about gifts of your soul. Also, Rose can read the aura of anyone you have personally known, at any time you have known him or her. No photo is necessary. You'll receive a lot more info. than from an Aura Report, plus you can ask questions.

Detailed lie-detector tests are fascinating. Rose can read what is really going on in people's feelings, communication, etc. Then she can go deeper to that person's inner way of relating to you. As appropriate, she will do an Empath Merge.

Or do you wish to learn how you appear to others? Name the person and the time in your relationship and let Rose do the rest.

Are you curious about how your aura shifts in reaction to certain people in your life? Just ask. You'll find that many of your chakra databanks change enormously, depending on the relationship. How confident, sexy, or self-aware were you at the start of a relationship compared to now? Relationship insights can be given in depth and detail.

Thinking of hiring a plumber, a lawyer, or some other professional? If you bring up the name, Rose can read the chakra databanks of greatest importance to you. Why not compare and contrast several candidates? Rose's clients have raved about the accuracy and usefulness of this type of research.

Please note that Rose does not predict the future, tell you the purpose of your life, give you the names of your guides, or read health-related information. But if you are feeling really stuck – a common reason for any of these four questions – you might benefit a lot from a Thrill Your Soul session. Here you can learn in detail how relationships, hobbies, career moves, or any other choices you name would affect your aura.
